OUR NDIS SERVICES

Short term accommodation

WHAT IS THE NDIS?

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is a new way of providing support and services for people with disability or significant impairment under the age of 65. We have a range of approved NDIS services to help support you to live well.

WHY MS?

	THE NEURO EXPERTS We have over 60 years' experience in living well with multiple sclerosis and other neurological conditions, so you don't have to explain how your symptoms can impact your everyday life and goals – we already get it.
	ACCESS MORE FREE SERVICES When you register with MS, we connect you into a whole range of other free services — including MS Connect our dedicated contact centre, education programs on everything from wellbeing to practical life skills, and we can connect you with other people living with the disease.
	YOUR DEDICATED MS CONSULTANT One of our MS experts will meet with you and your family to work out the best way to face your challenges. This is fully backed by a team of experts and clinical health professionals such as Nurses, Occupational Therapists, Social Workers, Physiotherapists and Continence experts – so we've got you covered. is all about taking a short break away from home, in a place that can support your needs properly.

Some of the problems short term accommodation can help address

- strain on relationships
- access to services for rural people
- carer burn out
- balance in your life

THE BENEFITS

- you get a break
- your carer gets a break
- opportunity to be social
- access other services during your stay

How do I pay?

Short term accommodation is an NDIS funded service. If you're eligible for the NDIS, you can speak to your planner about including it in your plan. If you're eligible, it won't cost you anything.
