OUR NDIS SERVICES

Support coordination

WHAT IS THE NDIS?

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is a new way of providing support and services for people with disability or significant impairment under the age of 65. We have a range of approved NDIS services to help support you to live well.

SUPPORT COORDINATION is all about making your NDIS plan active. We help you to choose the best service providers for your needs and help to put your plan into action.

Some of the problems support coordination can help address:

- stress and confusion
- feeling overwhelmed by the NDIS
- bad mood and anxiety
- poor motivation

THE BENEFITS

- understanding your NDIS plan
- support to implement your NDIS plan
- choice and control
- support to find the best services for your needs
- qualified advice and support
- support to complete documentation, navigating the NDIS portal, preparation for your annual review

How do I pay?

Support coordination is an NDIS funded service. If you're eligible for the NDIS, you can speak to your planner about including it in your plan. If you're eligible, it won't cost you anything.

What to ask for in your NDIS planning.
